

VERSE 1

Who was his neighbour?

A man was on a journey near to Jericho

When some robbers came and beat him up

They left him at the roadside,

his clothes they took

Stole his money so that he was stuck!

1

CHORUS

Who was his neighbour?

Oh don't you know?

Why does it matter?

For God says so!

Look at every person

that you pass by;

Show each one

the Father's mighty love.

VERSE 2

A priest was on a mission to Jerusalem
When he saw the man
who'd lost his goods
Just lying in the roadside,
all bruised and lost
Yet he passed him and he did not stop!

3

CHORUS

*Who was his neighbour?
Oh don't you know?
Why does it matter?
For God says so!
Look at every person
that you pass by;
Show each one
the Father's mighty love.*

VERSE 3

A Samaritan was passing
when he saw the man
Cleaned his wounds
and on his donkey put
That tired and aching person;
a room he booked,
Silver coins paid
so his food was cooked!

CHORUS

*Who was his neighbour?
Oh don't you know?
Why does it matter?
For God says so!
Look at every person
that you pass by;
Show each one
the Father's mighty love.*
