

I'm walking in the darkness

I'm walking in the darkness, I do what I want
If it feels good I'll do it, if it doesn't I won't,
It doesn't really matter if there isn't any truth
If there isn't any God and there are no absolutes!

*Sin, sin, it's doing what we want to,
Sin, sin, it's doing wrong not right,
Sin, sin, it's failing to live up to The standard God has set,
We've all done wrong in His sight!*

I'm here today to tell you, of someone I know,
Yes there is a God in heaven and He loves us so,
He knows just what we're thinkin',
Sees everything we do, and the day will come
When he'll demand an answer from You!

Sin, sin, it's doing what we want to.....

So if you think there's no God to tell us what's right
And no consequence for all that we have done in this life,
Keep doin' what you're doin',
don't mess your head with sin,
But be warned there is a God and you will answer to Him!

Sin, sin, it's doing what we want to.....
