

Captivated by Your worth

Captivated by Your worth,
Eternal, Immutable, Infinite God,
I'm just, captivated by Your worth,
You're the Alpha and Omega,
Who was and is to come.

Lord You're Sovereign none is higher,
Nor has shown such love to me:
Set apart in light transcendent
Far above all earthly ways.

Holy Spirit cleanse my heart
So I might glimpse just who You are
And be, captivated, captivated,
Make me captivated by Your worth.

LaMar Boschman in his book "A Heart of Worship" encourages us to explore just WHO the God is that we worship – for "when aspects of God's character are taught, preached, studied and sung, they will go a long way towards bringing us into a rebirth of worship". Ask God for a pure heart, so you might see Him (Matthew 5:8) and pray that the Holy Spirit might reveal the transcendent One as you read His Word. Why not try reading some of the following passages aloud before using this song : Isaiah 46:9-10, Malachi 3:6, Psalm 113:4-6, Ephesians 1:18-23 and Matthew 5:8 – what is God telling YOU about Himself in these words?
